1. Claims 1-19, 21-41, 43-63, and 65-83 are allowable over the prior art of record.
2. The Specification is hereby objected to under 37 CFR 1.71 in that it fails to teach adequately one of ordinary skill-in-the-art how to make and to use the invention.

In each of dependent claims 20, 42, 64, and 84, it is stated that the claimed apparatus is used in or the claimed method is practiced in "at least a partial vacuum." The disclosed invention uses rotors for lift and to control the direction of movement of the overall device, which would require that the overall device be located in some sort of material medium. Rotors can not work to lift or to propel or to control direction in a vacuum or in what is substantially a vacuum, which is what is claimed in claims 20, 42, 64, and 84. Applicant has not disclosed to one of ordinary skill-in-the-art how to use rotors to provide lift or propulsion or directional control in a vacuum or in what is substantially a vacuum.

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 20, 42, 64, and 84 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Please see the remarks with the objection to the Specification in section 2 above.
